

Published by the Office of Public Affairs
for the SUNY Oswego Community

Oct. 23, 2013

October Photos

In this issue's photo gallery, the college reaches out to the community, showing off campus to a Columbus Day crowd of prospective students, walking side by side in an annual effort to raise funds for United Way and learning by doing at rejuvenated Rice Creek. If you would like to submit photos of timely activities for future issues, email pictures with a brief caption to proffice@oswego.edu.

Professor's novel engages timeless questions

The lines between two of Craig DeLancey's great passions — philosophy and science fiction — intertwine subtly but surely in his first traditionally published novel, "Gods of Earth." Read more >

Business makes national 'best' list for 10th year

Oswego's School of Business appears on Princeton Review's 2014 list of the nation's most outstanding MBA-granting business schools, the 10th consecutive year the school has achieved the designation. Read more >

Students in Oswego, Australia team on COIL class, robot videos

Professors and students on two continents — as well as human and robot actors in Oswego — gave a new dimension to collaboration earlier this year. Read more >

People in Action

In this issue, read about national and international presentations on design and entrepreneurship and a publication on meteorology by Oswego faculty members. Read more >

Calendar Highlights

Wednesday, Oct. 23

- Film and discussion: "Beast Wishes"

Thursday, Oct. 24

- Technology Education Fall conference

Spotlight

Meet Alycia White, whose experiences while working in a restaurant at home helped spark her interest in human resource management — in this issue's Spotlight.

Announcements

- Winter storms may cancel classes
- Multitude of events to mark Family and Friends Weekend
- New STEM facilities will highlight technology conference
- Levy, Goldsmith to appear for sports-themed Media Summit
- Police Report

Featured Videos

- The theatre department commissioned 2012 Oswego broadcasting graduate Ryan Schultz to film a promo for its current production, "Fahrenheit 451" — in gripping, movie-trailer style.

Friday, Oct. 25

- Family and Friends Weekend begins
- Technology Innovation Showcase
- "Fahrenheit 451" run continues

Saturday, Oct. 26

- Rice Creek Ramble
- Parents Day concert
- Art exhibit opening
- Men's Ice Hockey - Laker Showcase

- Family and Friends skate

Monday, Oct. 28

- Film: "Dark Side of Chocolate"

Tuesday, Oct. 29

- "Take Back the Night" rally, march, speakout
- German movie: "The Vision"

Wednesday, Oct. 30

- Movie: "Beautiful"

Saturday, Nov. 2

- Athletic Hall of Fame Induction Luncheon

Nov. 2 and 3

- Women's Ice Hockey Classic

Sunday, Nov. 3

- Safe Trick or Treat
- Concert: College Choir and State Singers

Wednesday, Nov. 6

- Dr. Lewis B. O'Donnell Media Summit

For details, see SUNY Oswego Events.

- A camera in the audience at the recent communications alumni dinner recorded remarks by Fox News Executive Vice President Bill Shine, a 1985 graduate of SUNY Oswego.

---

Resources

Research News
Artswego
Athletics
Student Blogs
Recent Milestones
Faculty Assembly
Employment Opportunities
Campus Update Archives
SUNY Oswego Home Page

Action Items

Submit news
RSS news feeds
Subscribe

Follow SUNY Oswego

