

Feb. 12, 2014

February Photos

In this issue's photo gallery, the college rolls out the welcome mat for international students, artists welcome visitors to two art exhibitions and Alpha Phi Alpha makes a welcome difference collecting clothing for those in need and keeping Martin Luther King's teachings alive. If you would like to submit photos of timely activities for future issues, email pictures with a brief caption to proffice@oswego.edu.

SUNY Oswego connections abound in 'Rigoletto'

Verdi's opera "Rigoletto" takes a new turn in Waterman Theatre this month as the setting changes from 16th century Mantua to 1920s Oswego and the Duke becomes a speakeasy owner who poses as a college student, in an adaptation by adjunct professor Mack Richardson. Read more >

Tryon, student lead state champ robotics team

A first-year team of secondary school students coached by a technology faculty member and student will participate in the VEX Robotics World Championship in April, thanks to their win at the recent state tournament. Read more >

'The Round House' named ORI's summer read

The Oswego Reading Initiative has chosen National Book Award winner "The Round House" by Louise Erdrich as this year's summer read for the college community. Read more >

SUNY Oswego continues national 'Best Value' ranking

For the third consecutive year, the Princeton Review and USA Today have named SUNY Oswego one of 75 "Best Value" public colleges in the nation. Read more >

Athletics program scores two national service awards

Oswego's intercollegiate athletics department claimed two — of a possible three — national community service awards in the Jostens/National Association Division III Athletic Administrators competition. Read more >

People in Action

In this issue, read about faculty performing off campus, publishing, presenting and receiving a research grant. Read more >

Hamlet times 2 comes to Waterman stage

The Acting Company, the renowned ensemble founded by actor and director John Houseman, will present two views of one of William Shakespeare's most famous characters at Feb. 26 and 27 in Waterman Theatre. Read more >

Spotlight

Meet Joan Carroll, who has embraced challenges from ice hockey coach to Faculty Assembly chair — in this issue's Spotlight.

Announcements

- Contractor with Watertown office likely winner of Tyler bid
- Black Student Union celebrates 'Sankofa Harambee' this month
- Special reception to mark Display to Archives' 25th anniversary
- Chamber music concert to feature works of Samuel Barber
- Random Acts of Kindness Week under way
- Curriculum Innovation Grant deadline approaches
- Police Report

Calendar Highlights

Wednesday, Feb. 12

- Science Today lecture
- Movie: "Die Fälscher" \("The Counterfeiters"\)

Feb. 12 and 13

- Blood drive

Friday, Feb. 14

- Wear Red Day

Saturday, Feb. 15

- Art exhibit opening reception

Feb. 15 and 16

- Theatre performance: "Christmas Mourn"

Wednesday, Feb. 19

- Movie: "El Bufalo de la Noche"
- Concert: "Celebrating Samuel Barber"

Thursday, Feb. 20

- "Global Poverty" lecture
- Ernst & Young Lecture

Friday, Feb. 21

- Black History Month variety show

Feb. 21 and 23

- Opera performance: "Rigoletto"

Saturday, Feb. 22

- Black Student Union dinner

Monday, Feb. 24

- General faculty meeting
- Movie: "Hannah Arendt"

Wednesday, Feb. 26

- Theatre performance: "Hamlet"

For details, see SUNY Oswego Events.

Resources

- Research News
- Artswego
- Athletics
- Student Blogs
- Recent Milestones
- Faculty Assembly
- Employment Opportunities
- Campus Update Archives
- SUNY Oswego Home Page

Action Items

- Submit news
- RSS news feeds
- Subscribe

Follow SUNY Oswego

