HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters Degree

DR. ROSCOE C. BROWN, JR.

Riverdale, New York

Dr. Roscoe C. Brown, Jr. has had a long and distinguished record of service to educational institutions. Dr. Brown has been a leader in higher education and in particular in the diversification of higher education: a strong imperative at SUNY Oswego. As an educator, he serves currently as university professor and Director of the Center for Urban Education Policy at the Graduate School and University Center of the City University of New York. Previously, he was President of Bronx Community College for sixteen years, where he had an extremely distinguished record. Dr. Brown has served as a faculty member at West Virginia State College and at New York University School of Education. Among his publications is the widely read reference work, The Negro Almanac, Classical Studies in Physical Activity (with Gerald Kenyon), as well as New Perspectives of Man in Action (with B.J. Cratty), The Black Experience, and more than sixty articles in scholarly journals and other publications. He also prepared the very popular "Black Culture Quiz," of which over 200,000 copies have been distributed.

Prior to his career in education, Dr. Brown served in the U.S. Army Air Forces, attaining the rank of Captain. He was commander of the 100th Fighter Squadron, 322 Fighter Group and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with eight Oak Leaf Clusters.

Among Dr. Brown's previous awards are the Rosenwald Fellowship, the New York University Distinguished Alumnus Award, the National Distinguished Community Service Award from the National Urban Coalition, and an induction into the National Association for Sports and Physical Education Hall of Fame.

Dr. Brown has also served as Chair of New York City Regional Educational Center for Economic Development, as Chair of the American Council on Education Inter-Associational Presidents' Committee on Collegiate Athletics, and as President of One Hundred Black Men, Inc., an influential group of civic-minded African-American New Yorkers. In addition, he has served on the Board of Directors for the American Council on Education and a number of other boards and commissions. His service has also included work in the arts. He has hosted a number of television programs including "Black Letters," "Bicentennial: A Black Perspective," "Freedom's Word," and "Black Arts," for which he received an Emmy Award. He has also hosted a weekly radio program "Soul of Reason" and a weekly television news segment "Black View Point."

Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters Degree

DR. HERALDO MUNOZ

Brasilia, Brazil

Dr. Heraldo Munoz, SUNY Oswego Class of 1972, a citizen of Chile and presently Chilean ambassador to Brazil, is recognized throughout the Western Hemisphere as a skilled diplomat, prolific author, insightful scholar and untiring advocate of democracy and human rights in Latin America.

Twenty years before multiculturalism and diversity were priorities on American campuses, Chilean-born Heraldo Munoz was actively promoting these concepts as an undergraduate student at SUNY Oswego. In the early 1970s, he was a vital force behind the college's new Latin Student Union. He was also an outstanding student of political science and was determined to gain the maximum benefits from his Oswego education, which was funded by a scholarship from the United States government.

Dr. Munoz has extensive experience as a practicing diplomat and distinguished scholar. His academic record is stellar: after receiving a bachelor's degree in political science from SUNY Oswego, he earned his doctorate and master's degree in international relations from the University of Denver. Despite offers from prestigious American and European universities, he returned to Chile – and to a very volatile political climate – to teach at the Institute of International Affairs at the University of Chile. His expertise, however, continued to be sought by outstanding universities, and he has enjoyed visiting scholar status at such institutions as the Brookings Institution and Columbia University.

Dr. Munoz is the author or editor of more than 20 books and numerous scholarly articles. He has been cited extensively in publications throughout the United States, including the Washington Post, Miami Herald and Los Angeles Times. His areas of expertise include U.S. foreign policy toward Latin America, Latin American and Caribbean foreign relations, international trade and the environment.

International recognition of Dr. Munoz has grown dramatically since 1990, when he was named Chilean ambassador to the Organization of American States (OAS). Dr. Munoz has played a major role in enlarging the scope of OAS to include the resolution of violent conflict and the preservation of democracy in the Western Hemisphere. In 1994 Dr. Munoz received the Oswego Alumni Association Distinguished Alumnus Award in recognition of his extraordinary career.

COLLEGE HONORS PROGRAM

The SUNY Oswego Honors Program consists of a core of courses in the social sciences, humanities, natural sciences, philosophy, and history designed to stimulate students' intellectual growth and develop their analytical abilities. Unlike traditional courses, which present material from a single field of study, Honors Program courses are multi-disciplinary, drawing ideas and information from many fields and addressing concerns common to all the disciplines. In addition to Honors core requirements and all the requirements in their majors, Honors Program students must also meet requirements in a laboratory science and a foreign language and complete a Senior Honors Thesis, in which they explore a topic in some depth. The following students from the Class of 1995 have successfully met all the requirements for the SUNY Oswego Honors Program.

Elizabeth Anne Barber
Aaron Lee Barth
Karen M. Christie
Maria Theresa Congdon
Lauren Rachael Elbaum
Amy Michele Gleason
Megan Elizabeth Lavery
Brian Scott Levow
Michelle Mancuso
Michael Joseph Nettleton
Joel Edward Ogden
Nicole Marie Parisi

The Seal

The seal displayed on the backdrop was designed by John W. Mincher, professor emeritus of the Theatre Department, for the inauguration of Oswego's ninth president. Gracing the center of the seal is the symbolic torch which traditionally represents the light of learning. The Seal was donated to the College by Professor and Mrs. Mincher.

The Academic Procession

The centuries-old pageantry of the academic procession dates from ancient traditions rooted in the early universities. Since the clergy were in charge of the first academic ceremonies, they followed the familiar order of religious processions.

The Medallion

The medallion worn by the president of the State University of New York at Oswego, is a symbol of authority worn at all official ceremonies such as Commencement and Honors Convocation. Oswego is represented in the perfect center of the medallion by a tiny green and gold circle. The dot is properly located on an outline of New York State, and the State itself is surmounted over a globe, thus showing the relationship of the institution to both New York and the world.

A wreath of gold leaves surrounds the globe and is circled by a flat band bearing the engraved college name, and includes two dates: 1861, the college founding and 1948, marking the founding of the State University of which Oswego was a charter unit.

Above the medallion is a gold lamp of knowledge, emblematic of a seat of learning.

The medallion was designed and executed by Professor Dominic DiPasquale, formerly of the Art Department.

The Mace

In medieval times the mace was used as a weapon of offense and the metal head was often heavily spiked. Today it is used chiefly in ceremonial functions of churches, governments, colleges and universities. The head of the Oswego mace holds a jade sphere symbolizing the university of wisdom and knowledge, surrounded by four silver flanges unfolding petal-like without imprisoning the sphere and representing the potentiality of disciplined imagination, the goal of higher education. The richness of the jade and the rosewood shaft are emblematic of the pomp and solemnity of academic ceremony.

A gift of the Class of 1969, the mace design and silver work was executed by Professor Joseph F. Shoenfelt, formerly of the Art Department, and the rosewood turning by Professor Emeritus William D. Todd, Technology Department.

The Tradition of Academic Attire

The caps, gowns and hoods worn at college and university functions date from the Middle Ages. Monks and students of that time wore them to keep warm in the damp, drafty halls of learning. From these practical origins they have developed into the accepted garb which symbolizes scholarly achievement.

Baccalaureate gowns have a long, pleated front with shirring across the shoulders and back. They are primarily distinguished by flowing sleeves pointed at the fingertips. These gowns may be worn open or closed.

The master's gown is worn open and the sleeve is cut so that the forearm comes through a slit just above the elbow.

Gowns for the doctorate are also worn open. They carry broad, velvet panels down the front and the three velvet bars on the full, round sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the degree. Mortarboards or caps worn with baccalaureate and master's gowns generally have black tassels. The tassel of the doctoral cap is usually made of gold bullion.

The hood gives color and meaning to the academic costume. Its silk lining bears the color of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is bordered with velvet of a prescribed width and color to indicate the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

Hail
OSWEGO

Voices fill the air

Singing reverently

Pledging our school fair

Truth and loyalty

This our song we raise

In her name and praise

Oswego, Alma Mater

Hail to thee!
