Justification:

This "Experience" would further communication among all students in that it is deemed toward contemporary issues and persons in review who do affect our lives. This is an alternate approach in philosophy as compared to the previous "Experiences" (Black Week) which were more toward an entertainment type level. We, as students, are focusing upon the institutionalized oppression, and our aim is to deal with the revolution on an educational level because people are still being deformed politically by the government and the mass media. These dates for the films were not taken at random. Martin Luther King's funeral was held on April 9, 1968 at the Ebenezer Baptist Church. This is why the film is to be on April 8th. (PPB has a film on the 7th). There was a rally in support of the Black Panthers on May 1st, 1970 and the police and National Guard used tear gas to disperse the crowd on New Haven's Town Green. Bobby Seale and others were facing trial on murder charges. This is why the second film is to be on May 2nd. On May 14th, 1970 a student at Jackson (Miss.) State College and a local high school senior, both Black, were killed in a barrage of police gunfire that riddled a student dormitory. This is why the third film is on the 14th.
