Resolution 2

WHEREAS, it is not essential for most students to declare a major before the end of the sophomore year, and

WHEREAS, most freshman and many sophomores are in fact undecided or undeclared, and

WHEREAS, faculty are generally knowledgeable about general education requirements of the college, and

WHEREAS, the Student Affairs Council of the Faculty Assembly has determined that poor or absent advisement for undeclared students appears to produce higher than expected attrition rates for their population, and

WHEREAS, the Faculty Assembly will be voting on a resolution calling for faculty, who have few or no advisees, to work through the Student Advisement Center to participate in advisement of undeclared underclassmen, therefore

Be it resolved by the Student Association Senate of the State University of New York, College of Arts and Sciences at Oswego that the Senate strongly supports this position and urges the members of the Faculty Assembly to pass this resolution to better facilitate the basic goals and achievements of the students in Oswego.

Resolution 6

Whereas, each student on campus has been required to pay an Equipment fee at the beginning of each semester, and

Whereas, this fee has covered the cost for each student to use the laundry facilities in his/her dormitory, and

Whereas, it is the general consensus of the population on campus that these facilities remain as they are, and

Whereas, it is our belief that the coin operated machines, as proposed by the State, would create chaos and inconvenience for the following reasons:

- 1). They would be more likely to be abused
- 2). They would be more expensive for each student and the school

Therefore

Be it resolved by the Student Association Senate of the State University of New York, College of Arts and Sciences at Oswego that

The Student Association strongly objects to the substitution of all present laundry machines by coin-operated machines and supports maintaining the present system.

Whereas, the City of Oswego's new zoning ordinance enacted during the summer of this year prevents any more than two unrelated persons from sharing a place of residence previously registered as a single-family dwelling, and

Whereas, numerous eviction notices have already been served in this first week of classes, and

Whereas, the overwhelming majority of affected tenants are college students, many of whom are unwitting violators of the ordinance because they have been misled by their landowners, and

Whereas, this ordinance has created a drastic shortage of housing for college students which is certain to grow progressively worse, and

Whereas, this law is totally counterproductive to college community relations which we have been attempting to improve, therefore

Whereas, Article II, Section III, Paragraph 2, of the Student Association Constitution allows the President to "appoint", with the consent of the Senate ... (any) officers whose appointment shall not be otherwise provided for and

Whereas, dorm councils appoint senators to fill vacancies, and

Whereas, the Off-Campus Association has been created in order to provide off-campus students with a social and political organization, and

Whereas, the constitution is vague in regards to these aforementioned powers of the temporary appointments to the senate, therefore
