BRUCE COVILLE '73

Honorary Doctor of Letters

Author Bruce Coville '73 is one of the world's favorite children's book writers. His works of science fiction, fantasy, adventure and magic have sparked the imaginations of millions of young children, and inspired many of them to a lifetime of reading. He has written more than 80 books, which have sold more than 15 million copies around the world.

Originally from Phoenix, NY, Mr. Coville received his bachelor's degree from SUNY Oswego in 1973. While teaching second and fourth grades in Liverpool, he co-authored musicals for his students to perform. Several of these musicals, including The Dragonslayer, have since been staged in professional theatre.

His first book, The Foolish Giant, was published in 1978 and was selected for the Random House School Book Club. He left teaching in 1981 to pursue his writing full time. The Monster's Ring, published just one year later, was the winner of the South Carolina Children's Choice Award and was nominated in several other states.

Mr. Coville is the author of several book series, including the Magic Shop, My Teacher, Space Brat and the Unicorn Chronicles. Each series has gained wide acclaim and popularity among young readers. My Teacher is an Alien, the four book series, sold 5 million copies and Jeremy Thatcher, Dragon Hatcher, published in 1991 as part of the Magic Shop series, has received Children's Choice and children's book awards across the country.

Mr. Coville has also shared the joy of Shakespeare's literature with young people, retelling the Bard's The Tempest, A Midsummer Night's Dream and Macbeth in picture books.

Mr. Coville has received international acclaim for his books, which have been reprinted in Great Britain, Japan, Sweden, France, Korea, Russia and Italy. His awards include the Golden Duck Award for Best Science Fiction for Children, the American Library Association's Best Books for Young Adults, and the prestigious Knickerbocker Award from the New York Library Association.

He has combined his storytelling abilities and love of theatre to bring the world of great fantasy literature to children in a new way. First with Words Take Wing, part of the Listening Library series, and now through his own audio publishing company, Full Cast Audio, he has recorded unabridged, full-cast audio recordings of fantasy novels by some of the most popular children's authors, as well as his own books.

Mr. Coville speaks to tens of thousands of students every year, reading to students and encouraging them to read and write. Thousands of letters pour into his Syracuse office as young readers share how his books brightened their lives, inspired them to be authors or to read instead of watching television.

Coville aspired to be a writer from his youth, and he credits the late Helen Buckley Simkiewicz, one of his professors at SUNY Oswego, for encouraging him. She remained a friend and mentor to him until her death in 2001 and he dedicated the short story, The Box, to her.

He has been honored by the Oswego Alumni Association with its most prestigious honor, the Distinguished Alumnus Award, in 1998. He has returned to campus several times, including serving as master of ceremonies for Torchlight, Oswego's oldest and most cherished tradition. He was included in the 1998 SUNY Alumni Honor Roll for Media and the Arts.

In awarding the Honorary Doctor of Letters degree to Bruce Coville, the State University of New York recognizes the career accomplishments of a talented and prolific author, dedicated to the field of children's literature and to bringing the joy of reading to young people.

DR. PETER CLEMENT '71 Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters

Dr. Peter Clement '71 is the senior expert for Russian affairs at the Central Intelligence Agency, where he currently supervises the Agency's analytic work on Russia. He has dedicated his career to public service and foreign affairs with the CIA for the past 25 years. During the first months of the Bush administration in January 2001, Dr. Clement served as the Director for Russian Affairs at the National Security Council. Over his career, he has frequently briefed top U.S. government officials including the Vice President, Secretary of Defense, Deputy Secretary of State, Directors of the Central Intelligence Agency and U.S. Congressional leaders.

Dr. Clement was chief of the analytic task force during the August 1991 coup attempt in Moscow that preceded the collapse of the Soviet Union later that year. He was selected to head the CIA's Russian Affairs Division in 1992, and in 1995 became the Director of the Office of Russian and Eurasian Analysis. From the early 1990s to the present day, Dr. Clement and his analysts have analyzed historic events in Russia that have influenced Russia's ongoing transformation: the fall of Gorbachev, Boris Yeltsin's tumultuous tenure, Russia's first free Presidential and legislative elections, privatization and the economic crash of 1998, the war in Chechnya, and the peaceful transfer of power from Yeltsin to Putin in 2000.

His analytic duties at CIA entailed a good deal of foreign travel during his career, including working visits to most of the former Soviet states, as well as countries in Asia, the Middle East, Africa, Europe, and Central America. In the summer of 2000, he accompanied CIA Director George Tenet for meetings in Moscow with top Russian officials.

Outside the CIA, Dr. Clement is a recognized expert on Soviet and post-Soviet Russia. He has published extensively in scholarly journals and books on Soviet foreign policy, Russian domestic politics, and most recently, a book chapter on the Cuban missile crisis. Dr. Clement is widely respected as an academician, having taught for some 10 years as an adjunct professor at the University of Maryland and the University of Virginia. He has presented many papers at academic conferences, and frequently lectures at universities, including talks at Harvard, Yale, University of Pennsylvania, Columbia, Princeton, Brown, and Georgetown, to name a few.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in history at Oswego, he went on to earn a master's degree in European history and a doctorate in Russian history, both at Michigan State University. His dissertation was on Stalin and the XVII Party Congress: The Party in Conflict.

The Oswego Alumni Association honored Dr. Clement with its most prestigious recognition, the Distinguished Alumnus Award, in 1996. He has returned to campus to serve as master of ceremonies for Torchlight, Oswego's oldest and most cherished tradition, and with his wife, Linda Donovan Clement '71, has served as a committee member for their 20th and 25th class reunions.

In awarding the Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree to Peter Clement, the State University of New York recognizes the career accomplishments of a top Russia expert, devoted public servant and witness to some of the pivotal events in recent history.

The Oswego College Honors Program consists of a core of courses in the social sciences, humanities, natural sciences, philosophy, and history designed to stimulate students' intellectual growth and develop their analytical abilities. Unlike traditional courses, which present material from a single field of study, Honors Program courses are multi-disciplinary, drawing ideas and information from many fields and addressing concerns common to all the disciplines. In addition to Honors core requirements and all the requirements in their majors, Honors Program students must also meet requirements in laboratory science and a foreign language and complete an Honors Thesis, in which they explore a topic in some depth. The following students from the Class of 2003, wearing silver tassels, are completing the requirements for the SUNY Oswego College Honors Program:

Steven Fay Abbass	Stephen Crayford Hatlee	Mark Welsley Rhodehamel
Carissa Lauren Anderson	Misty Elaine Houseknecht	Micah Philip Siegel

Registrar's Office, College Publications Department, College Auxiliary Services, including the College Store and Dining Services staff, for their work and participation in Commencement.*

*Medical assistance is available in the south end of Golden Romney Field House.
Audience video taping and still photos are permitted only from seats.*

THE COMMENCEMENT SETTING was designed for the investiture of Oswego's ninth president, Stephen L. Weber, by Professor Emeritus John Mincher and Professor William Stark of the Theatre Department and constructed by members of their stagecraft class. The marbling was done by alumnus Jeffrey Glave and the gold curtain material was obtained by alumnus Jef Billings. The curtain itself was made in the Theatre Department under the guidance of Professor Kitty Macey. The torch medallion was designed by Professor Mincher and is a gift of Professor and Mrs. Mincher.

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION - The centuries-old pageantry of the academic procession dates from ancient traditions rooted in the early universities. Since the clergy were in charge of the first academic ceremonies, they followed the familiar order of religious processions.

THE TRADITION OF ACADEMIC ATTIRE - Caps, gowns and hoods worn at college and university functions date from the Middle Ages. Monks and students of that time wore them to keep warm in the damp, drafty halls of learning. From these practical origins they have developed into the accepted garb which symbolizes scholarly achievement.

Baccalaureate gowns have a long, pleated front with shirring across the shoulders and back. They are primarily distinguished by flowing sleeves pointed at the fingertips. These gowns may be worn open or closed.

The master's gown is worn open and the sleeve is cut so that the forearm comes through a slit just above the elbow.

Doctoral gowns are traditionally worn open, but either open or closed is acceptable. They carry broad, velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the full, round sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the degree. Mortarboards or caps worn with baccalaureate and master's gowns generally have black tassels. The tassel of the doctoral cap is usually made of gold bullion.

The hood gives color and meaning to the academic costume. Its silk lining bears the color of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is bordered with velvet of a prescribed width and color to indicate the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

THE MEDALLION worn by the president of Oswego State, is a symbol of authority worn at all official ceremonies such as Commencement and Honors Convocation. Oswego is represented in the perfect center of the medallion by a tiny green and gold circle. The dot is properly located on an outline of New York State, and the State itself is surmounted over a globe, thus showing the relationship of the institution to both New York and the world.

A wreath of gold leaves surrounds the globe and is circled by a flat band bearing the engraved college name, and includes two dates: 1861, the college founding and 1948, marking the founding of the State University of which Oswego was a charter unit. Above the medallion is a gold lamp of knowledge, emblematic of a seat of learning.

The medallion was designed and executed by Professor Dominic DiPasquale, formerly of the Art Department.

THE MACE - In medieval times the mace was used as a weapon of offense and the metal head was often heavily spiked. Today it is used chiefly in ceremonial functions of churches, governments, colleges and universities. The head of the Oswego mace holds a jade sphere symbolizing the university of wisdom and knowledge, surrounded by four silver flanges unfolding petal-like without imprisoning the sphere and representing the potentiality of disciplined imagination, the goal of higher education. The richness of the jade and the rosewood shaft are emblematic of the pomp and solemnity of academic ceremony.

A gift of the Class of 1969, the mace design and silver work was executed by Professor Joseph F. Shoenfelt, formerly of the Art Department, and the rosewood turning by Professor Emeritus William D. Todd, Technology Department.

Hail OSWEGO

Voices fill the air
Singing reverently
Pledging our school fair
Truth and loyalty
This our song we raise
In her name and praise
Oswego, Alma Mater
Hail to thee!
